

Project Profile

Winnipeg, MB

South End Water Pollution Plant Upgrade

Winnipeg South End Water Pollution Control Center (SEWPCC) involves expanding and upgrading the facility to meet the operating and effluent limits outlined in Environment Act License 2716RR dated April 18, 2012, as well as accommodating year 2031 forecasted influent flows and loads.

Wescan scope of work included the supply and install of:

- Pipe Racks for 3 Bio Reactors. Over a Thousand metric Tons of Steel
- Aluminum/ Stainless and Carbon Steel Mezzanines
- Joist and Decking
- Over 6000 feet of Al Handrails

Type of Service
Structural / Misc. Metals

Sector
Industrial

Delivery Method
Bid Spec

Project Manager
Paul Neufeld

Superintendent
Tom Ryan

Completed
In progress

Value
$6,250,000

Owner
City of Winnipeg

Engineer
CH2M

Contractor
North American Construction